WHAT GOD HATH PROMISED

God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower—strewn pathways all our lives through.
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

God hath not promised we shall not know
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe.
He hath not told us we shall not bear
Many a burden, many a care.

But God hath promised strength for the day.
Rest for the laborer, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
unfailing sympathy, undying love.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah Honor, happy Christian woman was born March 27, 1892 on Johns Island, S. C., she was the daughter of Samuel and Marriah Francis. In 1907 she became a member of St. Stephen A.M.E. Church under the leadership of her father, Mr. Samuel Francis, then Mr. Henry Commodore, Mr. Rufus Blake, and Mrs. Viola Brown of Class No. 5.

She was a faithful worker as a Stewardess for a number of years. She departed this life April 12, 1980.

Sister Sarah Honor was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Louis Choice. After the death of Mr. Choice, she was again united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Louis Honor.

She persued her occupation as a mid-wife until her health failed. When she was unable to live alone, she went to New York to reside with her children. In New York she was under the watchful care of Rev. Frank Baker of Moore Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church

She leaves to mourn three adopted sons, Samuel Bishop, St. Julian Francis, and Irvin Francis, six grandchildren, three great-grands, three daughters-in-law, four nieces Florence Francis, Viola Brown, Florence Jones, Odessa Burrell, two nephews, Samuel Francis, and Alonza Francis, and a host of grandnieces, and nephews.

Done In Sorrow The Family.
