Special Tribute

Mother

We thank GOD for your "90" years of blessings, and for blessing me with a beautiful, kind, loving, caring, and wonderful Mother, words alone cannot say enough.

We thank God for the years we shared together.

Mother, you instilled in us the values of life to love one another, to pray, to have hope, to have faith, to love, and to put all our trust in the Lord.

You have ALWAYS been there for your family. You will always be honored our hearts and thoughts.

With deep love, Cleve & Melvin

Grandmother

Her wisdom is an art she shares so generously –
Her words are golden threads that bind our family.

We're covered by a quilt of love –
it warms us like no other.

God used the hands of one so dear –
The one we call MaMa

We love you and we'll miss you,
Your Grands

Memories to Cherish

Obituary

Corine Hawthorne was born the fourth of five children to Lemon and Mary Cunningham on April 1, 1915 in Vaiden, Mississippi. As a child she was educated in Vaiden schools. After leaving Vaiden High School, she went on to become a teacher for two years and subsequently became a housekeeper for the Armstrong, Fullove, Anderson, and Power families.

While working, she met and ultimately married the late Rev. Edward Hawthorne. From this union, four children were born--Bernice, Cleve, Mary, and Melvin.

Corine always had a heart for God since her early childhood. As a child, she and her family were members of Tuckerville Missionary Baptist Church. Once her husband became a pastor later in their marriage, she, among other church responsibilities, became a well-loved pastor's wife throughout the Vaiden community.

Although Corine kept a busy lifestyle, she often enjoyed leisure activities such as crocheting, planting flowers, and cooking.

Quietly, in the early morning hours of January 18, 2006, God sent His angels to escort Corine into His glorious presence. We will miss her hospitable personality, giving heart, lifestyle of integrity, and unforgettable self-confidence that drew so many to admire her. She leaves to cherish her memory her sons Melvin Hawthorne (Willie Lou) and Cleve Hawthorne; her only brother Lemon Cunningham (Elizabeth); five grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.
