

Don't Grieve for Me

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
 I'm following the path God laid, you see.
 I took His hand when I heard him call.
 I turned around and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I've found the peace on a sunny day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joys.
 A family shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Oh yes, these things, I too, will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.
 God wanted me now; He set me free.

The Obituary

*Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed, and there was no longer any sea.
I saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.
Revelation 21: 1-2*

Mr. John Robinson, Sr., affectionately known as "Snookie" was born on March 25, 1935 in Charleston, South Carolina to the late Francis and Saraphine Robinson. John was the oldest of thirteen siblings.

John was educated in the Charleston County Public School System.

In December of 1956, John married Fannie Smiley and to this union nine children were born. After thirty seven years of marriage, God called Fannie home. Years after her death, The Lord saw John's need and answered his prayer with a loving help mate and friend. In June of 2000, he married Ruth Judge and to this union he was blessed with three additional children. They were blessed to have shared the past fourteen years giving God the glory and praise for what he had brought to their lives.

John worked as a mill worker with Woodstock Manufacturing and Southern Lumber Mill Company for many years until his retirement from the latter in 2000. He was a Mason and served as Past Master of St. Joseph Lodge #130. In June of 1998, John passed the Royal Arch Mason exam and became a part of the Palmetto Grand Royal Arch Chapter (Free and Accepted Ancient York Rite Masons), Prince Hall Origin National Compact of USA-West Columbia, SC.

John began his spiritual journey at an early age where he felt the call of God on his life. He was baptized as member of Webster United Methodist Church (now New Webster United Methodist Church). He was a very dedicated member. John exemplified and illustrated extraordinary faith and the power of prayer as a Senior Choir member, Class Leader (#1), United Methodist Men, and minister in the church and community.

His most valued role was husband, father, uncle, brother and friend. John was always positive and uplifted the name of the Lord. He took His call and love for God very seriously and treated everyone accordingly.

He was preceded in death by a sister Dorothy and three brothers, James, Gerald and David Robinson.

The family is inviting you to the Wadmalaw Community Center for a repast following these services. Brother Robinson was there when the first brick was laid, he spent countless hours there and enjoyed every moment so it is only fitting that we end these services at the center in honor of his memory and a life well-lived. He loved going there and had many enjoyable moments.*
