Officiating

A Mighty Giant has fallen! t'was God that cut him down.
Shook from his head that hoary frost. To place there on a crown.

Many years a sailor thought this way faring land.

He conquered every evening for he moved at God's command.

Now his work is ended and he has lain down to rest.

I seem to hear him wisper; O! Lord I have done my best.

Well done my faithful servant. I know you've struggled hard. That's why I thought to call you, from labor to reward.
