REWARD OF SERVICE

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds both great and small
Are close-knit strands of an unbroken thread,
Where love ennobles all.
The world may sound no trumpets, ring no bells,
The Book of Life the sluring tells.

—Elizabeth Barrett Browning

Obituary—

Mr. Eldridge L. Hunter, the third son of the late Reverend and Mrs. Eldridge Hunter, Sr., was born at Young Mill, Freestone County, Texas. He attended the public school of Titus Farm and Patterson Prairie in Freestone County.

Mr. Eldridge joined the church at an early age. He loved to sing in the church and as a young lad his favorite song was "God's Getting Weary of Your Wicked Ways." He was a member of Hope Methodist Church until he moved to Malone, Texas where he united with Tyre Methodist Church and remained faithful until his demise. In the church he served as Church School Superintendent for 35 years and as Steward and Trustee for 30 years.

Mr. Hunter was a friendly and lovable person. He loved God first; secondly, he loved humanity and was always willing to share and help those in need. In 1920 he was united in holy wedlock to the present Mrs. Annie Mae Hunter.

The Angel of Silence came for him after a life of faithful service to God and his fellow man on April 2, 1975 at the Hubbard Hospital, Hubbard, Texas.

His survivors are:

His wife: Mrs. Annie M. Hunter, Malone, Texas;

One son: Brady Hunter, Birmingham, Alabama;

Four sisters: Mrs. A. M. Titus, Fairfield, Texas

Mesdames Susie Roberts, Mary E. Phillips and Blanche Nolan, all of Los Angeles, California;

Three brothers: Samuel Hunter, Oakwood, Texas;

Terrell and Bailey Hunter, Los Angeles, California;

Two grandchildren of Los Angeles, California;

Numerous other relatives and friends.
