THE PARTING VIEW

RECESSIONAL

Life, we've been long together
Through pleasant and through cloudy weather.
'Tis hard to part when friends are dear—
Perhaps 'twill cost a sigh, a tear;
Then steal away, give little warning;
Choose thine own time;
Say not goodnight—but in some brighter clime
Bid me good morning.

Obituary —

Mrs. Sydney Gillmore, the daughter of Mrs. Lula Neal, was born in Shreveport, Louisiana on August 28, 1895.

Upon moving to Texas, she joined Jones Chapel Methodist Church at an early age where she remained a member until her death.

On September 2, 1909, she married Mr. George Proctor, a union to which sixteen children were born. Mrs. Proctor was preceded in death by her husband and eleven children.

Mrs. Proctor served in many capacities in the church and lodge.

She leaves to mourn her passing:

Three daughters: Mrs. Eloise Shaw, Los Angeles, California;

Mrs. Ruby Harris, Houston, Texas;

Mrs. Sydney Chatman, Duarte, California;

Two sons: George and Lawrence Proctor, Los Angeles, California;

Sixteen grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren;

A host of other relatives and friends.
