The Obituary

The hour glass, with its sands of time, has slowly but surely spilled its contents and with the passing of the last sand, went the life of our loved one.

DANIEL LEWIS SMALLS, the son of Lucille Smalls, was born on January 3, 1940, in Charleston, South Carolina; he died in peace on Sunday, August 13, 1995.

He received his early education from Burke High School, Charleston, South Carolina. He was a dedicated usher at his home church, New Tabernacle Fourth Baptist Church. He also sang on the church choir. He was founder and manager of the Mighty Royal Travelers of Charleston, which was organized in 1969.

Daniel was a very cheerful and happy-go-lucky man to his friends, a joy to his family and a source of goodwill to strangers.

Surviving are his devoted mother, Lucille Smalls; daughters—Deborah L. Smalls of Virginia, Ramona and Angela Smalls of New York, Henrietta Singleton of Charleston, South Carolina, and Mary Singleton of Trenton, New Jersey; sisters—Florence Smalls of Edisto Island, South Carolina, and Betty Ann Smalls of New York; one aunt, Mabel Whaley; two nephews—Robert B. Singleton and Mark A. Singleton of New York; one grandnephew, Robert Issah Singleton; one stepson, Henry James Singleton; two stepsisters—Felicia Singleton and Mabel Harden; two stepbrothers—Charles Whaley and Walter Whaley, other relatives and friends.

Look Up

*Look up, tired heart, toward the sky,
See beauties only found on high,
Birds sing in trees, not on the ground.
Only on high, the sun is found,
Look up! God's love is shining there
His evidence is everywhere!*
