

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer,
Or came to pay a call;
Perhaps you sang a cheerful song,
If so, we heard it all,
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish,
Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
By word or deed or touch;
Whatever was the kindly part,
We thank you, oh so very much!

*When we reach the end of a journey,
Most likely the endurance has been put to a test.
There in you're usually grown faint and wary,
Then naturally and spiritually you have earned a rest.
Both pleasing and sadness are always the flight of a lifetime;
Some victories are lost there are others that are won.
Oh, how joyous shall be the final overcoming,
When the last bit of our task is done.*
