Life; we've been long together
Through pleasant and through cloudy weather.
'Tis hard to part when friends are dear—
Perhaps 'will cost a sigh, a tear;
Then steal away, give little warning.
Choose thine own time;
Say not goodnight—but in some brighter clime
Bid me Good Morning.

By Anna Letitia Barbauld.

The Obituary

Mrs. Simmie Blaine Irvin, the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Blaine, was born April 22, 1901, in Freestone County, Texas.

She joined the Fairfield Methodist Church at an early age and served faithfully until death. On February, 1920, she was married to Mr. Joe Irvin to whom she remained a devoted wife.

She leaves to mourn her passing a husband, a mother, one sister, three brothers, and a host of other relatives and friends.

THE CLOCK OF LIFE

The clock of Life is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hand will stop
At late or early hour.

Now is the only time you own;
Live, Love, work, and with a will;
Place no faith in tomorrow for
The clock may then be still.
