Reverend W. M. Johnson, Pastor, Officiating

“Man that is born of a woman is of a few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.”—Job 14:1-2.

No one hears the doors that open
When they pass beyond our call,
Soft as the dropping petals of a rose
One by one, our loved ones fall.

But the memory of each loved one
Like the fragrance of the rose,
God sends to linger with us,
Till our own life's door shall close.

The pains of death are fast
Labor and sorrow cease
And life's long welfare closed
At last his soul has found peace.

Mr. William McIlveen, Jr., son of William and Grace McIlveen, was born May 18, 1944, in Fairfield, Texas.
