

"THE MASTER CALLED"

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Obituary

Charles Singleton departed this life on Monday, May 2, 2016 at the New York Congregational Nursing Center, Brooklyn, New York at the age of ninety-two. The son of the late Julius and LouAlice Singleton of Sumter, South Carolina, was born August 30, 1923.

He leaves a devoted daughter, Alice Love of East Elmhurst, New York; one daughter-in-law of whom he called his daughter, Ida Sessions Singleton of Pensacola, Florida; two granddaughters, Myra Singleton of Orlando, Florida and Stacey Singleton of Tampa, Florida; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. His wife, Catherine Richardson Singleton and son, the late Reverend Leon Singleton preceded him in death.

Charles joined Bridge Street AME Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Richard Allen Hildebrand. He was later approved by the church to serve as a Junior Steward under the leadership of the former pastor, Reverend Dr. Fred Lucas.

Alternatively, Charles Singleton was pleased of his membership and works at Bridge Street AME Church until his health failed him. Charles, being a proud man kept his illness privately over the past several years. Even though he was a quiet man, whenever a need was discovered among family members, church members and friends, he was always there to take charge and handle it gracefully.

Dad, Papa, Uncle "Fought a Good Fight," he finished the race and kept the Faith. Finally his crown of righteousness is laid up for him.
