Obituary

Mr. Randolph Jenkins was born May 17, 1951 to the late Deacon Frank Jenkins and Deaconess Annie Mae Witherspoon Jenkins. Randolph was educated in Charleston County Public Schools and earned a degree in Mechanical Engineering from the Community College of Baltimore, Maryland. He was employed as a Draftsman for the Department of Navy, Portsmouth Virginia Bureau and assigned to the Environmental Detachment Division, in Charleston South Carolina. Randolph retired after twenty seven (27) years of dedicated civil service to the government.

Randolph accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized at Royal Missionary Baptist Church in 1963. He was a lifelong member until the time of his death. He served faithfully and to the best of his abilities in each ministry to which he was elected and/or appointed which included: Junior Sunday School Superintendent, Member of Charleston County Sunday School BTU Congress, Building Committee, Vice Chairman of Trustee Board, and Chairman of Trustee Board. Randolph was passionate about singing and he was one of the original members of the Royal Baptist Male Choir. Randolph also enjoyed his time fishing with family and friends.

Randolph leaves to cherish his memories, a devoted son, Adrian L. Jenkins of Charleston, SC; a loving daughter, Asti (Jermaine) Grant from Owasso, OK; two special sisters, Sara Ann Simms of Baltimore, MD; and Mattie DellMue of Springfield, IL; one grandson, Tyrone Smith of Goose Creek, SC; a special nephew, LaVaughn Miller of Springfield, IL; four aunts, Sarah Jane Nixon, Hattie Brock both of Manning, SC; Binkie Burgess of Kingstree, SC and Cynthia Butler of Baltimore, MD; two uncles, Joseph N. Jenkins of Summerville, SC and Clarence (Gloria) Jenkins, Sr. of Ladson, SC; a close friend, Jamie Green; best friend, Chris Barnwell, and a host of relatives, church family and friends.
