Celebration Service Of The Late
M. T. Gipson
Miller Taft Gipson
Known As "T"

Tuesday, September 14, 1993 12:00 Noon

Baptist Education Building
Sardis, Mississippi

Reverend R. S. Bachus Officiating Pastor

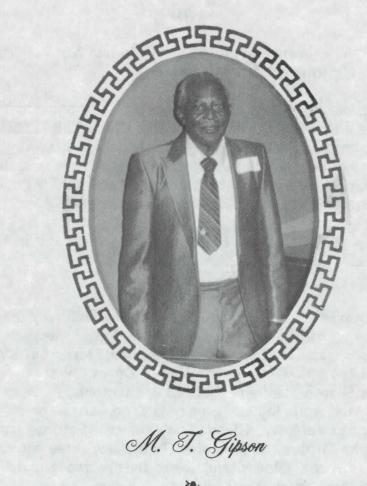

Obituary

M. T. was born May 15, 1919 to the late Mr. Bob and Edna Gipson in Como, Mississippi.

He professed a belief in Christ at an early age and became a member of Harmonia M. B. Church. In 1939 he was united in marriage to the late Johnie Mae Carter until her homegoing April, 1971. They were the parents of eleven children. "T." loved people and got joy out of visiting, talking, and laughing with other people.

In his unselfish ways he loved having company in his home. John Otis Gipson (one son) preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memories ten children, Mack Edward, Alfred, William Taft, Johnny Derrel, Kenneth E. Gipson, all of Memphis, Tennessee, Mrs. LaGloria Johnson, Mrs. Doris A. Jones, Mrs. Debra Calette Gross, Miss Sharon Denise Gipson, all of Memphis, Tennessee, and Miss Anita Joyce Gipson of Jackson, Mississippi; four daughters-in-law, Glenda, Wylodean, Patricia, and Ezepha Gipson, of Memphis, Tennessee; three sons-inlaw, George, Glover, and Jesse; twenty-five grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Susie Stephens; three sisters-in-law, Mr. Morice Gipson of Como, Mississippi, Mrs. Christine Gipson of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mrs. Sara B. Fleming of Detroit, Michigan; a very dear friend who cared for him, Edward Stitts; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends to cherish his memories.

Daddy you are so dear to our hearts, but now we know it's to part. It seems so long, we've loved you so. Our heart isn't prepared to let you go. Eve're trusting the Lord to see us through.

This time of sorrow that's making us blue. But daddy rest on, we'll be ok. When we think of you just resting away. Missing you today, tomorrow, and always.

Anita Joyce Gipson