Obituary

Altomae B. Hart passed away on July 3, 2015 at Vibra Hospital surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Lee County, SC on November 15, 1934. She was the daughter of the late Alford K. Burris and Phiphine Wood Burris. She was a faithful member of Mount Zion United Methodist Church until going off to college in 1952. She received her early education from Brockington High School in Timmonsville, SC.

Education was always an important part of Altomae's life, so in 1952, she attended Claflin College. There she earned a bachelor's degree in education and met her future husband, Samuel L. Hart. After graduation, she taught elementary school for 3 years before marrying Samuel L. Hart on June 6, 1960. Altomae taught in Georgia for several years before settling in Harleyville, SC where she taught mathematics at Jenkins Hill Elementary and Harley-Ridgeville High School. She loved her students and treated them as they were her children. She retired in the late 1980's.

Altomae always loved to sew, bake, and do hair. She would make a dress for her daughter and nieces and even a suit for her son in a matter of a day. Friends and family would always visit on holidays just to get a piece of her sour cream pound cake, to lick the bowl or to get a slice of her fresh home made bread.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her husband of 55 years, Samuel L. Hart; two sons, Eric Burris of Washington, DC and Samuel "Chuckie" Hart, Jr. of N. Charleston, SC; one daughter, Lisa Hart-Patton, MD (Rodney) of Chattanooga, TN; two grandchildren, Alegra Nate' Hart of Pinewood, SC and Brandon C. Patton of Chattanooga, TN; siblings, Odell Burris of NC, the late Claudette (Guy) Wood of Atlanta, GA, Gwendolyn (Johnnie) Joe of Piscataway, NJ, Alfred (Veleria) Burris, MD of Silver Spring, MD; mother-in-law, Lizeanna Hart; in-laws, Willie (Bernice) Hart, Shirley (Isiah) Harper, Harvey Hart, Jocelyn (Danny) Hamilton, the late Nathaniel (Rosabell) Hart and the late Kenneth Hart; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Precious Little Memories

Precious little memories
Of little things we've done.
Make the very darkest day
A bright and happy one.

Tender little memories
Of some word or deed,
Give us strength and courage
When we are in need.

Blessed little memories
Help us bear the cross
And soften all the bitterness
Of failure and of loss.

Priceless little memories
Are treasures without price,
And through the gateway of the heart
They lead to paradise.
