OBITUARY

Mrs. Lethia Mae Glass, of 1415 Shanklin Avenue, was born of the union between Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson, Sardis, Mississippi. She was born in Sardis, Mississippi, November 11, 1914. She was married to Mr. Crump Glass, Sr., and, to this union five children were born. She professed a hope in Christ at a very early age of 13 at the New Salem Baptist Church, Memphis, Tennessee. She departed this life Friday, October 8, 1976 at 11:00 P.M.

In the year of 1943 she moved to Evansville, Indiana. She was united with the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, where she was a member of the Senior Choir for years. Also she was a member of The Faithful Few Club. She was very active, always willing to do whatever she could. She loved her church and attended faithfully. She always had a pleasant smile and a pleasing personality. She was loved by all that knew her, but God loved her best.

She leaves to cherish her memory, five children, a daughter, Mrs. Geraldine Sutton Bowen and son-in-law of Memphis, Tennessee. Four sons, Crump Allen, Jr., of Memphis, Tennessee, Irving of Evansville, Laswell Gene of Tacoma, Washington, and Ron of Los Angeles, California. An aunt Lizzie Thomas and cousin Lamar of Batesville, Mississippi. One sister, Mrs. Marguree Davidson, of Memphis, Tennessee; uncle M. Gibson, Memphis; Brothers and sisters—Robert, Lois, and Jerome Gibson, Memphis; cousins Laura and Alzona Anderson of Chicago, Illinois and Irene Wright of Memphis, Tennessee; nine Grandchildren, two nephews, two nieces, two sisters-in-law and a host of other relatives and friends.

Her favorite expression, "Don't worry about what man may say, put all things in the hand of God, because things won't be like this always in the by and by."
