The Obituary

Verdia Mae Webb was born October 6, 1913 in Sardis, Mississippi to the union of Tommy Jones and Matilda Hoof.

She attended school there and accepted Christ in her life at an early age and was Baptized at Crossroads Baptist Church in Sardis, Mississippi. Her faith and belief in Jesus allowed her to master all adversities in life. She was a very strong loving mother who never complained of her sufferings.

Verdia Mae Webb moved to Detroit, Michigan and was later united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. James Edgar Webb in 1977. She was a loving housewife and continued to served Christ at Greater Centennial Baptist Church.

Verdia Mae Webb, known as Big Moma, Moma, Sister, Grandmoma and known to her friends as Ann will always be remembered in our hearts as a beautiful person who helped in anyway to make our lives happy.

Verdia Mae Webb departed this life in peace, November 5, 1997.

She leaves to cherish her memories: brother, Sam (Buster); sister, Matilda; children: Eunice Rosa, Juanita, Floyd, Clyde Allen and Delores; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great and great-great grandchildren and dear friends.

*God said you were getting weary
So He did what He thought was best
He came and stood beside you and whispered "Come and rest."*

*The weary hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights are passed
The ever patient precious body
Has found sweet rest at last.*
