*You were always close to us in times
of trouble and in times of happiness.
You spoke tenderly, was kind and just.
You were our mother that only we knew.
The things we did together was priceless.
There are no words that can express the way we feel,
But deep in our hearts you will remain.
We know you are at peace, you loved God,
So rest now our loving Aunt, Mother,
As we know you are one of God's angels.*

Lovingly,
Brenda, Chrissy,
Annetta and Edward

Obituary

"Well, I have fought long and hard for my God and through it all I have kept true to Him: and now the time has come for me to rest with my Jesus."

HARRIETT JOSEPHINE STEVENSON, daughter of the late James and Louise Ghee, was born on March 19, 1912, in Owings Mills, Maryland. She departed this life at 12:20 p.m. on October 13, 1998, in Baltimore, Maryland.

She was educated in the Baltimore County Public Schools. Harriett attended the Apex Beauty School, where she received her Manager's License in Cosmetology.

Harriett worked in various professions in her lifetime, but cooking was her specialty. Harriett loved to sing and dance. She loved to entertain people and make them laugh. She loved a good joke.

Since her childhood, Harriett was a member of Mt. Pleasant A.M.E. Church, which her father helped to found. After many years of loyal service, she began worship at Trinity A.M.E. Church until her passing. She performed functions on various committees at both churches.

Harriett was a loving, devoted mother, wife, sister, aunt, grandmother, mother-in-law and friend to all who knew her.

RECESSIONAL "When We All Get To Heaven"

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Charles E. Wayman, Jr. and Wilbur D. Wayman, Sr.; two brothers, Morgan Ghee and Claborne Ghee; one sister, Frances Costley; four grandchildren, Wilbur D. Wayman, Jr., Gregory S. Wayman, Charlene H. Wayman and Tracie V. Wayman; one daughter-in-law, Elsie B. Wayman; one brother-in-law, Horace Costley; three nieces, Brenda L. Ghee, Annetta M. Scott and Estelle Ghee; one special great niece, Christine L. Ghee; nephews, other relatives and friends, including one devoted friend, Ms. Ophia H. Swayne.

*"You wonder why I went away and did not say good-bye,
I could not bear to tell you
for it hurts me so when you cry.
I ran across the leeway and fell down at His feet,
He gently took me in His arms,
my journey is now complete.*

Devotedly,
Charles, Wilbur and
The Family
