

Order of Service

Minister Eddie Payne, Officiating

Prelude

Processional

Opening Prayer.....Minister James Tross

Obituary Reading.....Minister Lewis Benson

Memorial Talk.....Minister Eddie Payne

Closing Song....."" He Will Call"" Song III

Closing Prayer.....Minister Eddie Payne

~Interment~
Private

Ushers

Ushers of Kingdom Hall of Jehovah Witnesses

Acknowledgements

The family of Brother William Barron would like to extend sincere thanks for all sympathetic concerns and expressions of love shown during their bereavement. .

Professional Services Entrusted To:

Walker's Mortuary

"Chapel of Peace"

3407 Old Pond Road

John's Island, South Carolina 29455

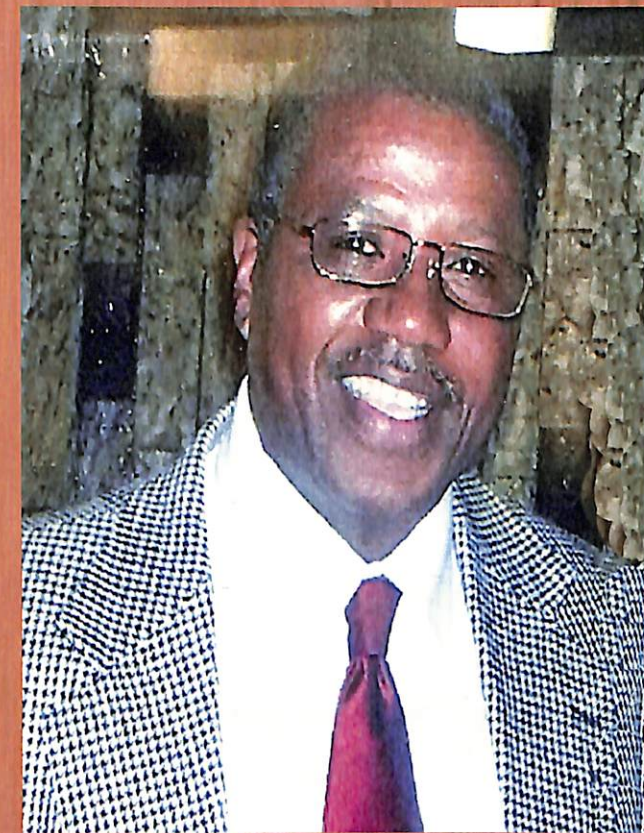

Phone: 843-559-0341

Fax: 843-559-3415

Programs by:

KitKat Graphics & Designs 843-324-8313

Funeral Service William Barron

12:30 PM

Thursday, August 28, 2014

Kingdom Hall of Jehovah Witnesses

1621 Main Road

Johns Island, South Carolina

Minister Eddie Payne

Obituary

February 4, 1955

August 20, 2014

Mr. William Barron was born on February 4, 1955 in Hollywood, SC. He was the son of William and Peggy Barron.

William married Linda Lee Simmons on February 15, 1986. William has three children. His eldest son, Damond William Barron. He later welcomed a daughter Celina Simone Barron on August 5, 1988 and a son Tyler Kristopher Barron on June 9, 1994.

William Barron attended Baptist Hill High School and later attended Newark Trade Center in Newark, New Jersey. William was an auto body painter for over 30 years.

His greatest accomplishment was when he received the truth and symbolized his dedication to Jehovah on July 4, 1984. He attended the West Congregation and later relocated to Johns Island Congregation where he served as a ministerial servant. Will was always known to be helpful by giving his time as a convention-parking attendant. He loved being in the ministry and auxiliary pioneered whenever he was able to do so.

William had a personality that could light up the room. He was a people's person. He could hold a conversation with anyone; whether it was someone he knew or someone he just met. He was known for his laugh, and his vibrant smile. He loved to spend time with his friends from the congregation, as well as family members. He loved to play and listen to music, watch sports, and traveling with his family.

William was a wonderful provider for his family. He made sure that his family needs were taken care of before his own. He was a hard worker physically and spiritually. He was loved by many and was loving and caring towards all. He will be remembered for always giving wonderful advice and being a good listener.

William leaves precious memories of him to his beloved wife, Linda Lee Barron; his sons, Damond Barron (Rodneshia) and Tyler K. Barron; his adoring daughter, Celina S. Barron; his grandchildren, Uriah, Trini-dee, Arianna Barron, and Nalyah Harley, his brothers, Richie Barron (Kathy), Terry Barron (Brenda), and Eric Barron; his sisters, Grace Beck and Kathy Washington (Barry); his mother and father-in-law, Frances and Christopher Simmons; sisters and brothers-in-law, Donna Johnson (Doug Clinton), Christal Chisolm (Sylvester), Sandra Mack (David, III), Christopher Simmons, III (aka 'Herbie'), and Phillip Simmons (Jennifer); a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins extended spiritual family and friends, all of whom loved him dearly.

