Reflections of a Life

REVEREND FRED MIKELL, son of the late Robert and Isabelle Mikell, was born on August 11, 1911 on Wadmalaw Island, S. C.

He joined Webster Methodist Church at an early age under the leadership of his uncle, Roger Mikell. Later he entered the ministry under the leadership of Reverend G. C. Brown.

Fred met and married Eloise Ford on December 24, 1936. From this union six children were born.

He departed this life February 28, 1999 at Roper Hospital. He leaves to mourn six daughters—Emily Mack, Gloria Simmons, Gladys Greenwood, Martha Mikell, Audrey Mikell and Jacqueline Revis; one son—Roosevelt Mikell; twenty-three grandchildren; thirty great grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; one sister—Martha Brown; three sisters-in-law—Ida Mikell, Catherine Ford and Corrine Murray; one daughter-in-law Sadie Mikell; three sons-in-law—Anderson Mack, Sr., Elbert Greenwood, Sr., and Roosevelt Simmons, Sr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Servant of God well done. You fought a good fight and finished your course.

"Life's Weaving"

*My Life Is But A Weaving Between My God And Me;
I May Not Choose The Colors He Knows What They Should Be
For He Can View The Pattern Upon The Upper Side,
While I Can See It Only On This, The Under Side.
Sometimes He Weaveth Sorrow, Which Seemeth Strange To Me;
But I Will Trust His Judgement, And Work On Faithfully;
'Tis He Who Fills The Shuttle, He Knows Just What Is Best;
So I Shall Weave In Earnest And Leave With Him The Rest.
At Last, When Life Is Ended, With Him I Shall Abide,
Then I May View The Pattern Upon The Upper Side;
Then I Shall Know The Reason Why Pain With Joy Entwined,
Was Woven In The Fabric Of Life That God Designed.*
