The Obituary

HAROLD DeWAYNE CARR was born on May 20, 1952, at St. Andrew's Parish, South Carolina. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Carr, fraternal grandson of Mrs. Bertha F. Carr and the late Mr. Thomas T. Carr, Jr., maternal grandson of Mr. Julius McCue and the late Mrs. Elizabeth McCue, nephew of Mrs. Ada C. Harris of New Jersey, Mrs. Mary C. Washington of California, Mr. Thomas T. Carr III; Mrs. Roslyn C. Robinson, Mr. Eugene Williams of New York; Mrs. Frances McC. Jones; Mrs. Louise McC. Moultrie of Detroit; Mr. Julius McCue, Jr. and Mr. James McCue.

He attended the Immaculate Conception School, Wallace Consolidated School and was to graduate from St. Andrew's High School during this summer.

Harold was an ardent lover of his band and baseball team. He was a most sincere and dependable young man and was loved by his teachers, classmates, schoolmates and team to which most of his life was given.

On Friday, June 19th 1970, while swimming at Folly Beach, he passed on.

Those left to cherish his memory are his mother and father, one grandmother and grandfather, seven sisters and brothers, five aunts and their husbands, four uncles and their wives, two grandaunts and their husbands, four granduncles and their wives, and a host of cousins and friends.

"Crossing The Bar"

*Sunset and evening star, And one clear call for me!
And may there be no meaning of the bar, When I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell, And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell, When I embark;
For though from out our borne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far—
I hope to see my Pilot face to face, When I have crossed the bar.*
