Sallie's Favorite Verse

The Lord is my rock and my fortress, and my deliverer:
my God, my strength, in whom I will trust. Psalm 18:2

Sallie Carter was born on January 24, 1898 in Sardis, Mississippi to the late Willie and Betty Robinson.

Affectionately called "Mama Dump" by her family and friends, she was joined in holy matrimony to Richard E. Carter, Sr. who preceded her in death. To this marriage two children were born, Edith R. Carter "Doll Baby" (Cox and Richard E. Carter, Jr. (RE) who preceded her in death.

She was a member of Walton Chapel C.M.E. Church, Sardis, Mississippi. After moving to Chicago, Illinois, she joined Saint Paul C.M.E. Church.

"Mama Dump" departed this life on Wednesday, November 25, 1998 at 8:15 p.m.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one son-in-law, Talcum Cox, Memphis, Tennessee; three granddaughters, Edith Laverne Thompson, Memphis, Tennessee, Doris (Erones) Webb, Chicago, Illinois and Dorothy (Bobby) McGory, Okalona, Mississippi; six great-grandchildren, , fourteen great-great-grandchildren, two great-great-great-grandchildren, two nieces, Iva M. Tucker, Gulfport, Mississippi and Dollye B. Hinton, Peoria, Illinois. She also leaves many nephews, great nephews, other dear relatives and a host of friends.

"Mama Dump" will be deeply missed by her loved ones, but she now walks with the Lord.

Perhaps you aren't ready yet to have to say good-bye.
Perhaps you thought of things you wish you said, well, so have I.
For one thing I have told you, not to worry about me.
I'm with the Lord in heaven now, you knew that's where I'd be.
I'm sorry that you're feeling sad, for I'm happy now.
I've asked the Lord to ease the hurt and comfort you somehow.
It's hard at the beginning, but I know you'll make it through.
I hope it helps to know, that I'll be waiting here for you.

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I am following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, or pray. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembrance hug, ed joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I've savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me. God wanted me now, He set me free.
