

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Allie V.
JOHNSON

FEBRUARY 15, 1929 ♦ SEPTEMBER 17, 2023

Reflections OF LIFE

Allie V. Johnson was born February 15, 1929, to the union of Alonzo Stewart and Vinnie Jones Stewart, in Batesville, MS. To this union three children were born: Allie V., Alonzo Jr., and Margaret.

Allie V. accepted Christ at an early age and united with Concord Baptist Church in Batesville, MS. She attended Concord School (Batesville, MS), Melrose Junior High School (Memphis, TN), and Walton Chapel (Sardis, MS). She was joined in holy matrimony to Andrew Lee Johnson on June 12, 1949. To this union five children were born: Carol, Kay, Jo, Debra, and Al.

She was an awesome cook and cake maker. The family always looked forward to her welcome home meals. Everyone was especially fond of her spaghetti, fried fish, fried corn, collard greens, cole slaw, cakes and homemade ice cream. She was employed by the Hosiery Mill and Panola Mills. Allie V. enjoyed sewing and making clothes for her children. She was also very particular about keeping an immaculate house.

She was active in all aspects of the life of the Concord Baptist Church. She served as member of: Concord Mother Board, Mission Society, Usher board, choir, and Pastor Aide Committee. She and Andrew would often host community pastors for dinner meals in their home. Her involvement with the Church extended to the community. She was very active in the community Home Makers Club. She remained a shining example of humility and respect.

She leaves to cherish her memories, children Carol Johnson, Jo Johnson, Sharon Johnson Yarbrough all of Montevallo, AL; Debra Johnson Jackson (Alvin) of Alabaster, AL; Alfred Lee Johnson of Batesville, MS; and stepdaughter Ura Hereford of Chicago, IL. One devoted sister, Margaret Morris Tinsley of Red Oak, TX. Four grandchildren, three step grandchildren, two great grandchildren, seven step great grandchildren: a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband Andrew Lee Johnson, her parents Alonzo and Vennie Stewart, and her brother Alonzo Stewart, Jr.
