

This is for you, Daddy

This is for you, for the father I love, for the one who has cared all these years, but has never heard enough about how much I care.

So this is for you. For the one who has helped me through all my childhood fears and failures, and turned all that he could into successes and dreams.

For the man who is a wonderful example of what more men should be...

For the person whose devotion to his family is marked by gentle strength and guidance, and whose love of life, sense of direction and down-to-earth wisdom make more sense to me now than nearly any other thing I've learned.

If you never knew how much I respected you, I want you to know it now, Dad.

And if you never knew how much I admire you . . . Let me just say that I think you're the best father that any child ever had.

This is a poem filled with love, and it's all for you Daddy.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
