

To All of My Children

"You say I've left you sad
I'm sorry my soul is awefully glad.
Finally made it home.

Children I know it hurts so much,
But the comfort of God is just enough.
If you can think between your groans,
Just say, mama finally made it home

Children, Grandchildren, and Great Grandchildren of mine.
Life with you brought about a great time.
Really hate to leave you alone,
But my journey was o'er and I finally made it home.
Gonna miss that choir and singing there.
But I had a choice to make about a land so far
Just move out from where you'd seen me roam.

And, Hallelujah, I finally made it home.
Finally made it home, where the saints all go.
Finally made it home to the land of no more.
Yes, finally made it where no burdens weigh you down
Finally made it home, Got my Golden Crown

I'll be waiting for each of you.
Who love the Lord like I do.
What time we're going to have
When all of us finally make it home.
Home, that's known by the Savior's face
Home, that's just at the end of the race
Home, that's full of joy and shouting
Home, that's sweet home, finally made it home."

Obituary

Muggie Manning was born on October 29, 1911 in Oakwood, Texas, the third child of eight children to Floyd Terry and Eddie Wiley Terry.

She was raised in Freestone and attended school at the Sand Hill Community School. She was a devoted housewife.

Muggie married Woodrow Manning and to this union four children were born.

As a child she was a member of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church where she was a class leader and served in many other capacities. Later she joined Waymon Chapel AME Church where she was a Stewardess, Treasurer of Missionary and eventually became a mother of the church.

Ms. Manning was a member of Heroines of Jericho East Lake Court #109 Order of Eastern Star and she volunteered at E. E. Wheat Center.

On Tuesday, January 22, 2008 Ms. Manning answered the Master's call and went home to be with the Lord.

Those who preceded her in death are her parents, Floyd and Eddie Terry; husband, Woodrow Manning Sr.; a son, Yuteen Manning; a daughter, Earnestine Taylor; brothers, Emanuel and Lee Bertha Terry, Floyd, Jr. and Govie Terry, Earl and Electra Terry and sisters, Annie Gary and Sandy Smith.

She is survived by a son, Woodrow (Laura) Manning, Jr. of Lancaster; Lynell Crawford of Dallas, TX; granddaughter (she raised) Tarzan (Preston) Manning Russell of Arlington; a brother, Washington (Rhonda) Terry of Oakwood; sisters, Beulah Woodard of Waco, Frankie Terry Alford of Oakwood; caregiver, Shirley Campbell; 13 grandchildren; 23 great grandchildren; 1 great great grandchild and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

To a Great Lady

~ Your Life ~

Life is a challenge and you met it
Life is a gift and you accepted it
Life is an adventure, so you dared it
Life is sorrow, you have overcome it
Life is a tragedy, you faced it
Life is a duty and my great lady
... you performed it
Life is a game, you played it well
Life is a mystery, you unfolded it
Life is a song and Lord, did you sing it
Life is an opportunity, and you took it
Life is journey and you have completed it
Life is a promise, you have fulfilled it
Life is a beauty and you praise it
Life is a struggle and you have fought it
Life is a puzzle and my Great Lady ...
Through it all
... you have solved it.
