Obituary

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye maybe also."
John 14:1-4

Willie Mae Walker Fort, daughter of the late Woodson Walker and the late Mattie McKinney Walker Davis was born in Carroll County, Mississippi on October 8, 1922.

She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church. She served as president of the Missionary Society and as an usher.

She united in Holy Matrimony to William G. Fort December 24, 1938. To this union were born twelve children, six who preceded her in death.

She departed this life Tuesday, February 4, 2003 at Greenwood Leflore Hospital at the age of eighty. She leaves to cherish her memories and to celebrate her life: husband, William Glisper Fort; two sons, Lewis G. Fort (Wanda) of Temple, Texas and William Glisper Fort, Jr. of Minneapolis, Minnesota; four daughters, Viola Smith (William) of Indianapolis, Indiana; Mary Jean Roberts (Albert) of Lakeland, Florida; Shirley Delores Thomas of Vaiden, Mississippi; Dorothy Jean Fort of Ridgeland, Mississippi; one sister, Mozellar Ray of Indianapolis, Indiana; fourteen grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Preceding her in death are two daughters, Ella Ruth Vaughn and Ethel Mae Fort; four sons, E.C. Fort, W.B. Fort, Tyrone Fort, and Willie Lewis Fort; two sisters, Della Mae Walker and Lizzie Mae Williams; two brothers, John Woodson Walker, Jr. and W. D. Walker; and one grandson, William Martin Smith II.
