OBITUARY

John B. Burgess, the son of the late Warren and Viola Burgess was born in Sumter, South Carolina, May 10, 1904. He departed from this life on July 5, 1984 in Columbia Presbyterian Hospital.

John's religious training began at a very young age in Sumter, South Carolina at the Mt. Zion Methodist Church.

He left Sumter in 1923 and traveled to New York City, where he made his home thereafter. He was married to the late Mary Butler Burgess, whom he knew from childhood. He retired from the Pennsylvania Railroad, where he had worked for 36 years.

A few years ago he was stricken with an illness, which he bore with patience and faith in God. His favorite scripture was the 23rd Psalm, and his favorite hymn was "God Will Take Care Of You."

John is survived by one sister, Mary L. Ghee, Bronx, New York; one brother, James Burgess, Davenport, Florida; one aunt, Mrs. Wilhelmina Suitt, New York City; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Lillie Burgess and Mrs. Marie
