

CLYDE KELLY

Clyde Kelley

Services will be held Saturday for former Fairfield resident Clyde Kelly, 96, of Ft. Worth, who died Monday at Harris Methodist Hospital in Ft. Worth.

Mr. Kelley was born on May 17, 1908 at Boyenton, Ok. He has live in Oklahoma, California and Texas.

A barber for ten years or more, he also worked as an electrician and had retired from Weapons Naval Station at Longbeach, Ca.

He was a member of Jones Chapel United Methodist Church.

Services will be held at Jones Chapel United Methodist Church with the Rev. Darrell Houston officiating.

Interment will follow at Bethel Cemetery in Fairfield.

Pallbearers will be friends and family.

Mr. Kelley is survived by nieces Gertrude K. Alioth and Louvenia K. Phillips, both of Kansas City, Mo; care givers, Henry and Martha Nero of Ft. Worth; great nieces, great nephews, a special great nephew, Derek Phillips of Minnesota, and a host of cousins and friends.

Arrangements were made by Moore's Angelic Funeral Home.