The Life of George Brown, Jr.

I will lift mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

Psalm 121:1-2

George Brown, Jr., the son of the late George Brown, Sr. and Sarah Waites Brown was born May 18, 1935 in Johns Island, South Carolina.

George accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of St. James United Methodist Church which is presently, Bethlehem St. James United Methodist Church.

He graduated in 1954 from Burke High School, in Charleston, South Carolina. Upon graduation from high school, George enlisted in the United States Navy. Due to a permanent physical disability, he received an honorable discharge on April 1, 1959.

Through his travels, he was known as "Junior, Mr. George, Mr. Brown and Georgie B." He was known for calling his friends and family members just to say, "hey there" and "everything is alright". He was a kind, gentle, quiet, giving, and loving father, grandfather, great-grand father, uncle, cousin and friend.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: two daughters, LaPonda R. Greene of Charleston, South Carolina, Kerry E. Greene, of Baltimore, Maryland; two grand-daughters, Fallyn R. Greene of Charleston, South Carolina, Amina K. Daniels of Baltimore, Maryland; one great-grandson, Trevor Colin, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
