

OBSEQUIES

The Late Mr. Maud S. Hassell

*Many a lonely man at last comes to honor
Merits God's mercy, though much he endured
On wintry seas, with in his heart,
Dragging his oar through drenching cold brine,
Homeless and houseless and hunted by destiny.*

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
