

The Plan of the Master Weaver

Our lives are but fine weavings
That God and we prepare,
Each life becomes a fabric planned
And fashioned in His care
We may not always see just how
The weavings intertwine,
But we must trust the Master's hand
And follow His design,
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side,
While we must look from underneath
And trust in Him to guide . . .

Sometimes a strand of sorrow
Is added to His plan,
And though it's difficult for us,
We still must understand
That it's He who fills the shuttle,
It's He who knows what's best,
So we must weave in patience
And leave to Him the rest.

Not till the loom is silent
And shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why - -
The dark threads are as needed
In the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

For all the kindness you have shown,
We thank you very much,
For sympathy in sorrowing days,
For friendship's healing touch.

With gratitudes our hearts are full,
Though words cannot convey,
The tender thoughts and thankfulness,
We hold for you today.

The Rose Still Grows Beyond The Wall . . .

Near a shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.
Onward it crept with added strength,
The light, the dew, the broadening view,
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more . . .

Life Celebration of Mrs. Beatrice Hunter

On September 24, 1913 in Oakwood, Texas, Mr. & Mrs. Alex and Katie Solomon Marshall became the proud parents of their one and only baby girl, whom they named Beatrice.

She accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church in the Bethel Community where she was a loyal member. She later became a life-long member of Union United Methodist Church. She was a member of Sweet Annis Chapter #116 and served as secretary for numerous years in the Order of Eastern Star.

She attended Bethel Public Schools and graduated from Lincoln High School in Palestine, Texas.

Later she met and united in holy matrimony to Mr. Samuel Hunter on October 5, 1940. To this union two sons were born.

The angel of silence came quietly and relieved the pain and suffering of Mrs. Beatrice Hunter on Tuesday, June 6, 1995.

Those who preceded her in death were: her husband, Mr. Samuel Hunter on January 13, 1990 and her parents, Mr. & Mrs. Alex & Katie ~~Hunter~~ Marshall.

Beatrice leaves to cherish her memories:

2 Sons: Mr. Johnny (Brenda) Hunter, Duncanville, Texas
Mr. Henry Hunter, Dallas, Texas

8 Grandchildren

8 Great Grandchildren

A host of relatives and friends

. . . scattering fragrance far and wide.
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.

"The Rose still grows beyond the wall."

Heaven

Heaven is
The place where Happiness is Everywhere.

Animals
and birds sing - - -
As does Everything.

To each stone
"How-do-you-do?"
Stone answers back,
"Well! And You?"
