OBITUARY

A life we loved came to a close on Friday, May 24, 1985 at 4 P.M. at the Cherokee Memorial Hospital, Gaffney, S. C. when MR. ARVIN CORRY, SR. of 204 Gaffney Avenue, Gaffney, S. C. joined those in that home not built by hands, but whose maker and builder is God.

Son of the late Harrison Dewberry and the late Hopie Corry, he was born July 31, 1917 in Cherokee County, S. C. He was united in holy matrimony to Miss Rosa Lee Littlejohn on March 12, 1939 at Gaffney, S. C. He was inducted into the U.S. Army Air Force on April 26, 1944 and served honorably during World War II.

At an early age, he joined Mount Sinai Baptist Church. He was a retired employee and forman for The Street Department of Gaffney, S. C. He was a source of inspiration to his family and friends. We loved him and will miss him.

Left to cherish fond memories are: his loving wife, Mrs. Rosa Lee Corry of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn C. Smith and Mrs. Nancy Ann Montgomery of Gaffney, S.C.; four sons, Mr. Willie N. Corry of Philadelphia, Pa., Mr. Arvin Corry, Jr., Mr. David Corry and Mr. Roy Dean Rainey of Gaffney, S. C.; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Alice Hopper of Gaffney, S. C., Mrs. Ruby Mae Hollis and Mrs. Rosa Mae Hollis of Kannapolis, N. C.; two brothers, Mr. Jack Corry of New York City and Mr. John Henry Dewberry of Cowpens, S. C.; eighteen grandchildren; four of them, Ms. Ivey Askew of San Diego, Calif, Ms. Debra Renee' Smith, Ms. Dartona Lovelle Coleman and Mr. Douglas Smith, Jr. of Gaffney, S. C., he reared as his children; seven great-grandchildren; two aunts, Mrs. Grace C. Black and Mrs. Bessie H. Corry of Gaffney, S. C.; mother-in-law, Mrs. Katie L. Garrett of Baltimore, Md.; other relatives and many friends.

TO THE ONE WE'LL MISS

Arvin was a loving husband to his wife,
A man who made a drastic change in life.
To his children and to his grandchildren,
He was a leader and a protector
And he was a devoted brother
To his sisters and brothers.
He was a friend in the time of need,
Yes, Arvin, we shall truly miss you indeed.
He has left us, to go on to a better place,
But one day soon, we will once again see his face.
