

OBSEQUIES

o f

MRS. JOANNA BROWN

November 18, 1906

September 20, 1973

Ninth Baptist Church

East Long Street

Ville Platte, Louisiana

Monday September 24, 1973

3:30 P.M.

DR. M. L. THOMAS, Pastor

Interment in the Ninth Baptist Church Cemetery
Owens-Thomas Funeral Home in charge of arrangements

OBITUARY

Mrs. Joanna Brown was born on November 18, 1906 to Mr. and Mrs. Silius Daniel. She was baptized at an early age by the Rev. Edgar Foote and became a member of the Ninth Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. E. D. Hudson and also Rev. W. C. Frank. She served faithfully as a deaconess of the church, which is presently pastored by Dr. M. L. Thomas, until she departed this life on September 20, 1973.

She was married to Mr. Alcide Brown of Ville Platte, Louisiana. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother, who put the interest of her family first; she saw to it that her children were given the best that she could provide through loving care, spiritual nourishment, and motherly comfort.

She leaves to mourn, her husband Mr. Alcide Brown, four (4) sons, Felton and Weldon Frank, and Preston and Horace Ardoin. Three (3) daughters Mrs. Mattie Lee Strade, Ethel Lee Ardoin and Mary Ann Ardoin. Two (2) sisters, forty-six (46) grandchildren and one (1) great grandchild and a host of friends and relatives.

ORDER OF SERVICES

Processional

Song (Near the Cross) Choir

Scripture

Hymn Must Jesus Bear the Cross

Prayer

Selection (What a Friend) Choir

Obituary Leatrice Lavagine

Solo Bertha Thomas

Expressions

Selection God Will Take Care of You

Eulogy Ministers

Hymn Amazing Grace

Sermon Dr. M. L. Thomas, Pastor

Recessional

The family wishes to express their deepest appreciation for all the kind deeds during the illness and death of their loved one.

A special thanks to the Owens-Thomas Funeral Home staff for services rendered.