

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you, oh so very much!

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Pearlie Carter Jones, daughter of the late Gilbert and Rachel Carter, was born April 9, 1905, in Freestone County, Texas. She received her formal education at Titus Farm, and in 1927, was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Jack Jones, who preceded her in death. To this union no children were born.

She confessed her faith in Christ at an early age and was a member of Spring Bank Baptist Church. She later became a member of Ward Prairie Baptist Church. She later moved to Fairfield, Texas and united with Fairfield Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor William Johnson, Jr. where she remained a faithful member until her death. She was also a member of the Choir for many years, worked in Mission I and wherever she was needed. She also was a member of the Princess Court No. 257.

To cherish her memories, she leaves: a nephew, Johnnie B. Grayson (whom she reared); a sister, Ardella Mae Carter, she and Johnnie were both of Dallas, Texas; a host of neices, nephews, other relatives and friends.
