

His Strength

I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength. I give all praises to you, because of the strength in your name. But sometimes I wonder what you can do through our name. No great success to show, no glory of our own. Yet in our time of weakness you are there to let us know. Your strength is there when our strength is gone. You'll carry us when we can't carry on. Raised in your power, the weak become strong. Your strength is perfect. We can only know the power that you hold. When we truly see how deep our weakness goes. Your strength in us, your strength in us. Begins when ours comes to an end. You hear our humble cry and prove again and again. Your strength is perfect when our strength is gone. You'll carry us when we can't carry on. Raised in your power the weak become strong. Your strength is perfect when our strength is gone. You'll carry us when we can't carry on. Raised in your power, the weak become strong. Your strength is perfect and will forever live on.

Obituary

Mrs. Lillian B. Johnson was born the seventh of nine children to the parentage of the late Crate and Dollie Franklin, on April 1, 1915 in Fairfield, Texas. She attended the Hopewell Baptist Church in Fairfield, where she gave her life to Christ at an early age. After moving to Dallas she joined and became a faithful member of Holly Grove Baptist Church, pastored by the late Rev. Johnny Boone. She then joined the New Life Spiritual Baptist Church pastored by Rev. Ken Chaney, and was a faithful member there until her health began to fail.

A retired seamstress, Lillian was admitted to the DeSoto Nursing Home to receive health care, until the Lord said, "Well done thy good and faithful servant," calling her home on January 8, 1998. She was preceded in death by her husband, Alvin Johnson, her son, Millard C. Iglehart, Sr., four brothers and two sisters.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, two brothers, Horace Franklin (Lucille) and Crate Franklin (Vi), both of Houston, Texas; daughter-in-law, Jewel Iglehart of Dallas, Texas; 12 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; 9 great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Eulogy will be delivered by Associate Pastor, Rev. Clayton Iglehart, Evangelist Temple Baptist Church.

Gift of Life

Not much from this great world I ask
Beyond the strength to do my task.
It is enough that I may be
On hand to see a blossoming tree
And hear a songbird, now and then,
Singing his hymns of joy to men.

I do not ask that life shall be
Forever care and sorrow free,
Nor that some distant morning I
Shall not awake to grieve and sigh.
I ask but faith to stand before
Whate'er the future has in store.

Let me be one whose courage springs
From all the countless little things
Of joy and beauty which abound
Wherever man may look around.
Let me exult in peace or strife
That I have had the gift of life.
