OBITUARY

Alzada Harris entered this mortal life on December 20, 1906 in Panola County, MS. She was born the second of 11 children to Perlandas and Phenia Edmond Frazier. She confessed hope in Christ and received the assurance of her salvation at an early age and became a steadfast member of Shiloh C. M. E. Church. Mrs. Harris served at Shiloh as a Stewardess and Missionary.

On Christmas Day, 1927, she was married to Marvin "Jack" Harris and throughout their marriage were known to each other by their first initials—A and M. Together, they reared eight children: Gladys Whitelow (William), Morease Hatley (James), Perlandas Harris (Ann), Jim Harris (Carrie), Moses Edward Harris (Shirley) of Memphis, TN; Marvin Harris, Jr. (Eva) of Denver, CO; Mary Frances Johnson of Maywood, IL; and Julius Harris (Betty) of Como, MS. Mrs. Harris also leaves behind 17 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relations.

She is also survived by two sisters, Erna Mae Morris of Memphis, TN and Nyna Deloney of Gary, IN and three brothers, Moses Frazier and Shedrich Frazier (Hattie Mae) of Batesville, MS and Harden Frazier (Daisy) of Chicago, IL.

Our heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, called His earthly angel home on Friday, October 23, 1998 at 6:00 a.m.

Endeared by all for her bright spirit, quick wit and loving nature, she was known as Punch to her siblings, Aunt Zate to some and "Muh" or just Granny to many. Alzada Harris will be missed but not forgotten—her fingerprints touched the soul of everyone she encountered.
