Obituary

*Your bright star twinkled its eye and you left us.
You have left behind a beautiful memory;
A sorrow too great to be told.
But to us who loved and lost,
Your memory will never grow old.*

HORACE COSTLEY departed this life on March 14, 1999, after a lengthy illness. Horace was born on November 24, 1915, the son of the late Jacob and Mary L. Costley.

Horace was educated in Carroll County.

He lived in Frederick, Maryland for a number of years, then moved to Baltimore, where he married his wife, Frances Ghee.

Horace was a "jack of all trades," but had a special love of horses. Horace worked at Comfort Inn until he retired.

Horace was a member of First United Church of Jesus Christ Apostolic and attended faithfully until his health failed.

Horace leaves to mourn his passing: his loving and devoted wife, Frances Ghee Costley; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins who are too numerous to name.

*Your yesterdays will be our tomorrows
For the love you brought has no sorrows,
Greatly missed, you shall be in our hearts
We'll always have thee,
So rest, rest well my dear,
For the Lord is your keeper, so have no fear.*

Sorrowfully submitted,
THE FAMILY
