Mrs. Pearlina Mitchell Lee was born to the late William and Jenny Berry Mitchell on January 25, 1913 in Panola County. She departed this life on Sunday, July 15, 2001 at Tri Lakes Medical Center in Batesville, Mississippi.

She confessed a hope in Christ at an early age and united with the Bluff Springs Missionary Baptist Church. After moving to Batesville, Mississippi, she joined Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church. There, she was very active in the choir. Later in life, she joined the Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church. She was a loyal and faithful member, serving in the choir. She attended Bible Enrichment Class and served in any area where she could render service. Sister Lee was a life long resident of Panola County.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: one daughter, Annie Mae Butler of Batesville, Mississippi; four grandchildren, Dorothy Mae Thompson of Oxford, Mississippi, Samantha Hardin and Robert Pinkins of Oakland, California, and Deborah (Lygunnah) Bean of Batesville, Mississippi; two grandchildren preceded her in death—Diann and Gwenlyn; 18 great grandchildren; 32 great-great grandchildren; a grand son-in-law—Clarence Hardiman; a host of relatives and friends.
