George Earle Powell

Mr. George Earle Powell, son of Gladys Powell Fludd and the late Paul B. Powell, was born November 19, 1949 in Charleston, South Carolina. He received his early education in the public school system of Charleston County. George also attended South Carolina State College, where he was a charter member of Groove Phi Groove Social Fellowship, Inc. In 1971, he joined the United States Air Force where he served four years. George returned home and was employed by the International Longshoreman Association (I.L.A.) Local 1422. He was the proprietor of the family business Fair Deal Grocery, "where you get a square deal or no deal at all." Those who knew him knew his love for the store. George was baptized and reared in Mt. Carmel United Methodist Church where he served faithfully until his death.

George leaves to cherish his memories: his loving and caring mother, Gladys Powell Fludd, one son Maurice Graham Powell (Larecha), two daughters, Ms. Selena Smalls, Ms. Renea Simmons, one brother, Mr. Santel H. Powell (Sheila), one sister, Deborah Y. Powell-Anderson (Franklin); sister-in-law Linda Powell; seven grandchildren; one great grandchild and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
