23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

Phyllis Ann Hypolite Taylor was born on February 15, 1959 to Curley Hypolite, Jr., and Mae Audrey Durand Hypolite. She was formerly married to Derolodi John Taylor, Sr.

She is preceded in death by two infant sons. Having lived a fruitful life, "Phil" as she was known to family and friends, left many with fond memories of a joyful and happy person.

Sharing her memory are her parents, Curley and Mae Audrey Hypolite; children, Damian Hypolite, Crystal Taylor, Derolodi Taylor, Jr., and Canan Hypolite; two brothers, Stephan Hypolite and Dwayne Hypolite; two sisters, Janice Hypolite Glenn and Denise Hypolite; one sister-in-law, Cynthia Hypolite; one brother-in-law, Francis Glenn, Jr.; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Curley Hypolite, Sr., and Princely Durand and the late Loina Durand of Parks, Louisiana.

Safety Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and bright,
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safety home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly
Tread the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me,
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on
Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Try to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now while live remaineth
You shall rest in Jesus' Land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the pleasure of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Appreciation

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.*
