Albert confessed hope in Christ at Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Brown in Monticello, Mississippi. After moving to Batesville, he joined New Bethlehem Missionary Baptist church. He served as a member of the trustee board and the choir until his health failed.

Harvey, as he was affectionately known, attended the public schools of Lawrence County, Mississippi. After graduating from high school, he attended Alcorn State University in Lorman, Mississippi where he received a Bachelor of Science degree. He served 30 years as educator in the South Panola School District and 25 years of service with the Corps of Engineers. On June 16, 1963, Albert was joined in holy matrimony to Margaret Louise Jones. To this union, three children were born. In 1995, he suffered kidney failure and was placed on dialysis. And for 10 years, he fought this battle.

The Exodus

And then, when I come to the end of life's way,
And my sun goes down at the close of the day;
All weary and worn, I shall cling to my shield,
Tho' no herald acclaim me a hero in the field;
In the cool of the evening, I shall come to my rest,
In the sweet conclusion~
I've done my best.
