

*God saw you were getting tired
And healing was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to Me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Obituary

Morgan Junior Ghee (Buddy), son of the late James Isaac Ghee and Louise Dorsey Ghee was born on October 25, 1923. He departed this life on June 3, 2005 after a long illness.

Morgan was educated in the Owings Mills Area School System. In 1945 he married Mary Louise Burgess and this union produced two daughters, Cassie and Gwendolyn. In his early years he worked for the National Biscuit Company (Nabisco), however most of his adult career was spent working for Armco Steel Inc. from which he retired after nearly 30 years of service.

Morgan gave his life to Christ and became a member of the First United Church of Jesus Christ "Apostolic" now known as Transformation Ministries of the United Church of Jesus Christ. What Morgan most enjoyed was spending quiet times at home, reading his bible, watching sports and old movies and eating good food.

He leaves to mourn his daughters Cassie Louise Ghee of College Park, Maryland and Gwendolyn Veronica Bright of Brooklyn, New York, one sister Frances Costley of Baltimore, Maryland, one brother Claborne Ghee of Baltimore, Maryland, a granddaughter, Debra Bright Harris of Silver Spring, Maryland, a great-granddaughter, Natalie Jasmine Harris of Silver Spring, Maryland, a special niece and nephew, Marlene and Tyrone Howard of Baltimore, Maryland, who provided faithful and dedicated care for him during the last few years of his illness, and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins. He also leaves to mourn two special friends, Mr. & Mrs. Anderson Lewis.

*Life's disappointments are all over
Trouble and trials have ceased
No more suffering, no more tears
God has given thee sweet peace
You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee*

*Lovingly Submitted,
The Family*
