

Beyond the Sunset

*Should you go first and I remain
To walk the road alone,
I'll live in memory's garden, dear,
With happy days we've known.*

*In spring I'll watch for roses red,
When fades the lilac blue.
In early fall when brown leaves call,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.*

*Should you go first and I remain
To finish with the scroll,
No lightening shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem droll.*

*We've known so much happiness,
We've had our cup of joy;
And memory is one gift from God
That death cannot destroy.*

*Should you go first and I remain,
For battles to be fought;
Each thing you've touched along the way
Will be a hallowed spot.*

*I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile,
Though blindly I may grope;
The memory of your helping hand
Will buoy me on with hope.*

*Should you go first and I remain,
One thing I'd have to do;
Walk slowly down that long, lone path,
For soon I'll follow you.
I'll want to know each step you take,
That I may walk the same.
For someday, down that lonely road,
You'll hear me call your name.*

*I will sing of mercy and judgement: unto thee O Lord, will I sing.
 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way.
 O when wilt thou come unto me?
 I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes:
 I hate the work of them that turn aside;
 it shall not cleave to me.
 A froward heart shall depart from me:
 I will not know a wicked person.
 Psalms 101:1-4*
