Obituary

Mrs. Bettie Bailey McGee, was born September 11, 1947. In Carroll County. To Mr. Frank Bailey Sr. and to the late Elice Bailey. She passed this life on Monday November 26, 2001, in her home in Vaiden, Ms.

Bettie accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. When she joined Vaiden Friendship Missionary Baptist Church. There she remained a faithful member throughout her life. She serves as Chairman of the Program Committee, devoted Choir member. She was also the vice-mayor of Vaiden, Ms for a number of years. She attended North Vaiden High School and was a graduate of the class of 1969.

Bettie united in holy matrimony to Fred McGee. July 30, 1965, and unto this union one son was born.

Those whom she leaves behind to cherish her precious memories is her father Mr. Frank Bailey Sr. and her Dear husband Fred McGee of Vaiden, Ms. Son, Freddie (Sylvia) of Winona, Ms. Stepsons David (Lisa) of Edward, Ms, and Walter Ray (Faye) of Columbus, Ms and Corey of Atlanta, Ga. Stepdaughter, Cynthia of Columbus, Ms. Brothers, Ezell Cunningham, Frank Bailey Jr. and Leroy (Carolyn) Bailey of Chicago, Ill. and sister Gracie (Eddie) Walker of Chicago, Ill, and 14 grandchildren, aunts; Mrs. Louise Alexander of Memphis, Tenn. A uncle James Kinney of Vaiden, Ms. A host of nieces, nephews and cousins; Play brothers: Robert Berry, Micheal Roberts.

(Bettie is now at peace, resting at home. God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death and neither sorrow. no crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away).

Tributes

"To My Loving Wife"

You gave me many years of happiness and joy. You always knew when I needed you most and always come through. We'll meet again when you open the gate to let me into heaven. I love you and will forever cherish you memories.

Your husband,
Fred McGee

"In Memory Of You"

I don't think of you as gone away, For your journey has begun. Life holds so many Memories; this earth is only one. For no one really passes away. We all must go to sleep one day. In my heart you always stay. For I know I will see you again someday.

Your sister,
Gracie

"To My Loving Mother and Mother In Law"

Bettie, words cannot express the way we feel; only GOD knows we were together in our hearts, We're very thankful for the relationship we have shared. Your ways and personality will always be cherished.

We love you and you will truly be missed.

Your son and daughter in law
Freddie and Sylvia

"To A Dear Cousin"

You were our source of inspiration and admiration. Although, we are saddened by your departure from us, your charismatic, personality, and supportive encouragement were greatly appreciated. We will always remember and honor you, fondly in our hearts.

Your cousins
Emma, William, Katara

"A Tribute To Our Grandmother"

Love always, hugging, kissing, and caring very dearly to us. You meant so much to us for all the years you have been living now we truly understand what life meant to us.

Tenishia, Ryan, Freddrick,
Lil. Billy, Tamia, Aleasha,
Bethany, Troy, Steven,
Lil. Ray, Pee-Wee, and Tameka.

(WE LOVE YOU GRANDMA)

"A Fine, A Fine Soldier" (By: Jackie McKinney)

A warrior, A fighter, A fearless soldier internally clothed from head to toe. With amour too impregnable, too strong, too awesome to be destroyed. Here lies the worn outer garments of A TRUE SOLDIER. Feet that will travel no more rugged paths. Hands that will wipe no more use less tears. Eyes that will hide no more relentless pain, and a newborn immortal soul. That is forever now free. Rest OLD SOLIDER THE BATTLE IS WON. Discard your helmet, Drop you sword, Exchange your breastplate, Uncover you loins, fold up your shield of faith and dedicate your garments to the ground. Forward you fierce warrior, march you brave fighter, halt you fearless soldier and receive your glorious crown.
