

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF APPRECIATION

The family of Barbara Jean Jones would like to express their deepest gratitude and appreciation for all of the love, kindness and thoughtful gestures that have been bestowed upon them during this time of bereavement. May God bless you.

I Will Miss You

*I will miss you, so loving and so free
You gave me life and love, reasons to live,
Your life is so full, and had so much to give.*

*You've set an example to follow,
Teaching, making, inspiring, caring.
Enjoying life to the fullest,
Everything you did was daring.*

*I miss you,
These last two years were a trial,
Our future times are so few,
When will our time come for a while?*

You are my Mom; I am your Son.

For nine mouths, we were one.

*We are gathering for your journey,
Let's look for the last at the sun.*

I will miss you. The pain is no more.

My life, my rock-you are passing through a new door.

Obituary

Barbara Jean Jones was born on April 26, 1953 in South Bend Indiana to Coy and Evelyn Malone. She was the second oldest of six girls and two boys.

Barbara was taught by her grandmother at an early age to play the organ. She often played in the church choir and would also sing solos.

Barbara was married to Nathan Jones and had three biological children and three step-children. After her divorce Barbara moved her surviving two children to Minneapolis Minnesota in 1981.

Barbara worked as a cook for Abbott Northwestern until she later retired to care for her grandchildren. She moved to Arizona in 2002 and in 2011 Barbara rededicated her life to Christ and joined the WDOM family.

Barbara age 58 died on November 4, 2011 at Mountain Vista Medical Center in Mesa, Arizona from congestive heart failure.

Barbara is survived by; her children, Assid-El-Sud Abdul-Kawee, Aieshah Jordan, Peter Jones, Abdur Rasheed, Mary Jones; grandchildren, Yasmina Jones, Khadijah Sidique, Ahmed Ibn-Abdul-Aziz, Tariq Ibn-Abdul-Aziz, Assid-El-Sud Abdul-Aziz, Iman Sidique, Tyra Jones, Demetrius Jones, David Jones, Nathaniel Jones, Thomas Jones, Peter Jones Jr.; great grandchildren, David Jones Jr., Miles Jones; sisters, Diana Cousette, Doris Araybi; nephews, Lashawn Smith, Luther Cousette; nieces, Lasheena Smith, Lachaka Cousette; adoptive children, Melissa Ziegler, Gwendolyn Jones, Amy Ihnen, Twila Evans, Nichole Thames; friends, H.C. Anderson, Tina and Tony Josefowicz, Mariana Stotesbury and a host of other relatives and friends. Barbara is loved by all and we will continue to celebrate her home going.
