Obituary

1st Timothy 6:12

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

On May 7, 1916 a season of birth took place for Irene Harris. She was reared by her parents, Robert and Pearlle Harris along with two siblings, a sister Ethel Walton and Robert Harris who preceded her in death. She took her flight from this earth February 1, 2000 at 10:00 a.m. in the home of her daughter, Rosie, where she had resided for three years.

Her spiritual birth began at the age of twelve at the Harmonia Church where she served faithfully. She was a dedicated Mother of the Board, Choir Member and the Missionary Society. During her stay in Gary, Indiana she was under watch care at Metropolitan Church under the leadership of Rev. Floyd E. Dumas, Jr.

She was united into Holy Matrimony to the late Henry Walton and to this union four children were born. She will be missed by son, Edmond (Pearl) Walton Sr.; daughters, Rosie Hardin, Pearlle Walton all of Gary, Indiana; son, Vander (Alma) Walton, Sardis, MS; fifteen grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; seven sisters-in-law, Fannie Gault, Loretta Walton, Mittie Walton, Carrie Walton all of Gary, Indiana, Fannie Walton, Sledge, Mississippi, Adalaide Walton Spicer, Sardis, Mississippi and Ann Walton, Cincinnati, Ohio, many other relatives and friends.

God Promise you Peace - nothing lacking, nothing missing made whole in every way. The storm may blow, but the walk of faith must continue daily if you want the extraordinary to take place in your life then make the provision for it. Experience peace on a day to day basis as you keep God's promises in your heart and mouth. Unleash the power of the word and discover the keys to living in God's protection at all times. The world can't offer freedom from fear, but God has a peace that passes understanding. In ourselves we are full of faults but in him the anointed one we are blameless and harmless peace is an internal condition of the heart that results from an abiding relationship with the Prince of Peace. God's word says "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." The Lord is not lack concerning his promise . . . the day of the Lord will come.

(Your daughter-in-law, Alma)
