Obituary

Mrs. Zula Stukes Martino, the daughter of the late Charles and Annie Stukes, was born May 7, 1912 in Summerton, South Carolina. She entered into eternal rest Monday, October 31, 1983 at her home.

At an early age she was converted and became a member of Oaks A.M.E. Church, St. Paul, S.C. After her marriage she joined Live Oak A.M.E. Church, Vance, S.C. and later joined Target A.M.E. Church where she served faithfully until her health began to fail. She was president of Stewardess Board No. 4, leader of Class No. 22, a member of the Senior Choir, and a member of the Missionary Society. She was also a member of Elite Chapter 228, Order of the Eastern Star.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Thomas Martino. To this union, nine children were born.

She leaves to cherish memories of her: five daughters, Mrs. Catherine Williams, Brooklyn, N.Y., Mrs. Beatrice Cummings, Holly Hill, S.C., Mrs. Ann Hornbeak and Mrs. Queen Rouse, Charleston, S.C. and Mrs. Ruby Thompson, Raleigh, N.C.; four sons, Thomas Martino and Daniel Martino, Holly Hill, S.C., Howard Martino, Raleigh, N.C. and Anthony Martino, Charleston, S.C.; three foster children, Reverend Frederick Hunt, Mrs. Carolyn James and Mrs. Mary Myers; 20 grandchildren; 8 great grandchildren; 3 sisters, Mrs. Amelia Martino and Mrs. Mary Asbury, Vance, S.C. and Mrs. Rosa Howell, Plainfield, N.J.; 6 sons-in-law; 4 daughters-in-law; 6 sisters-in-law; 2 brothers-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In Memoriam

We cannot bring the old days back
When we were all together
But secret tears and loving thoughts
Will live with us forever.
God saw the road was getting rough
The hill too hard to climb,
He gently closed your eyes
And said - - - "Peace Be Thine."
But God loves you best

Sadly missed by The Family
