"THANK YOU"

*To those who help to brighten our day
In however big or small a way,
We should always think to stop and say,
"Thank You".*

*For every deed of kindness done
Or kind words from some thoughtful one,
These two words will return the sun:
"Thank You".*

*And we can be a friend indeed,
If when another meets our need
These words from heart and lips proceed—
"Thank You".

OBITUARY

Dorothy Onieta McIlveen was born in Mexia, Texas on September 6, 1917 and was the youngest child of Will and Roberta McBay. After completing her high school education at Dunbar High School, Mexia, Texas, she earned her bachelor and master degrees from Prairie View A&M College.

She was a teacher for 37 years and taught for 28 years in the Mexia Public Schools. She was a member of the Limestone Retired Teachers Association and worked with the Gibbs Memorial Library Board, and the Dunbar Douglass Alumni Association. She was also a devoted worker in the Mexia Memorial Cemetery Organization.

At an early age, she joined church and was a member of Antioch Baptist Church, Mexia, Texas.

In 1945, she married John D. Jackson. Two children were born of this union and one son survives. She later married James Milford McIlveen in 1989.

Surviving family members are her husband, James Milford McIlveen; son, John D. Jackson, Jr. and his wife, Billie Houston Jackson, Garland, Texas; other children, Wendell and Barbara McIlveen, La Marque, Texas, Bill and Carolyn Yarbo, Houston, Texas, Lewis and Barbara Malone, Dallas, Texas; one beloved sister, Willie McBay Benton, Houston, Texas; brothers Dr. Henry C. McBay, Atlanta, Georgia, Robert McBay; one sister-in-law, Sammie Jo McBay, Mexia, Texas; sister (cousin) and brother-in-law, Yvonne Ransom Churchwell and Dr. Charles Churchwell, Atlanta, Georgia; three grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Jackson, III, Dallas, Texas, Cametrice Jackson, Denton, Texas and Tina Newsome, Garland, Texas; four great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

*A mother laughs our laughter, sheds our tears,
Returns our love, fears our fears.
She lives our joys, cares our cares,
And all our hopes and dreams, she shares.*

Thank you for loving as only a mother can love, for being the most wonderful mother in the world - for being you.

*With love your son,
John D. Jackson, Jr.*
