Black Beauty #2

by Nicole Sampy (granddaughter)

*Black mother, black beauty
A force to be reckoned with Through rain or storm my for you stand strong*

*In hopes to carry on
From the darkest corners of life you've come
And still your beauty and grace shines on*

*Blackmother, black beauty
My love for the will always be
I found strength in your wisdom
And courage in your words
So I take with me a cherished history
To pass on to a new generation
So that our roots of strength will always be strong*

*Black mother, black queen
I will always hold the close
Even though you're gone
I know your journey will bring you peace and everlasting life
Through your love and understanding you've shown the way
So I take with me memories of yesterday
And hold on to the thought of seeing you again someday.*

APPRECIATION

"EVERYONE NEEDS SOMEONE"

People need people, and friends need friends, and we all need love for a full life depends, not on vast riches or great acclaim, not on success or on worldly fame, but just in knowing that someone cares and holds us close in their thoughts and prayers, for only the knowledge that we're understood makes everyday living feel WONDERFULLY GOOD.

And we rob ourselves of life's greatest need, when we "lock up our hearts" and fail to heed the outstretched hand reaching to find a kindred spirit, whose heart and mind are lonely and longing to someone share, our joys and sorrows and to make us aware that life's completeness and richness depends on the things we share with our loved ones and friends.
