

"I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith."

II Timothy 4: 6-7

"The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?"

Psalm 27:1

1931 -1995

If he were here, he'd say,

"Stay strong; move on."

It's not that easy, because grandpa is gone.

I love you and I'll miss you,
Terrence T. Elery

The family of Walter Greene, Sr. wishes to extend sincere thanks and deep gratitude for the many expressions of sympathy, love and consideration shown in their hour of bereavement.

"Life's Pathway"

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me."

John 14: 1

A pillar of love has been removed from our presence:

" A Time To Be Born"

Walter Greene, Sr. was born June 4, 1931 in Sardis, Mississippi to the late Milan Greene, Sr. and Lucille Webb-Greene. He was the fourth child born to this union. Two brothers and one sister preceded him in death.

"A Time To Live"

He confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized at Walton Chapel C.M.E. Church in Sardis, Mississippi. He graduated from Walton Chapel Vocational High School in 1949. He was united in holy matrimony to Winnie Hayes. To this union four children were born. He was a truck driver in Sardis and in later years he moved to Chicago, Illinois where he obtained several other jobs. He later was united in holy matrimony to Nettie Smith and to this union one child was born. He continued to work hard as a truck driver until he retired in 1994.

"A Time To Mourn"

He is survived by his loving wife, Nettie; six children : Linda (Sam) Johnson of Washington, D.C., Barbara (Charles) Elery, Deborah Greene both of Chicago, Illinois, Brenda (Eddie) Martin of Detroit, Michigan, Walter Greene, Jr. and Linda Greene both of Chicago, Illinois; sisters: Alice Webb of Gary, Indiana and Christine (Curtis) Bethel of Sardis Mississippi; mother-in-law, Isabella Smith of Chicago, Illinois; nine grandchildren: Charles, Terrence and Cedric Elery, Takisha, Torrie and Patrick Greene, Eddie and Cordia Martin and Edwin Cox (Johnson); three great-grandchildren: Kierra Reese (Elery), Ashley Fudge (Greene) and Walter Blackman (Elery); god-child, Henry Roscoe; sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and loving, caring friends.

"A Time Of Going Home"

Walter Greene, Sr. departed this loving and caring life on Saturday, January 7, 1995 at Little Company of Mary Hospital.

"A Time to Rest"

And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove!
For then would I fly away and be at rest.
