Obituary

Mr. Lomax B. Thomas was born on August 2, 1930 in Batesville, Mississippi, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Thomas, Sr.

At a very early age, he confessed his faith in Christ at Concord Missionary Baptist Church.

He attended school in Batesville, Mississippi and Rust College in Holly Springs, Mississippi.

In 1948, he entered the U. S. Army and was a Staff Sergeant upon tirement after twenty-two years. Following his retirement from the armed forces he was an employee at Memphis Housing Authority until his retirement in 1991.

He leaves to mourn his departure a loving wife, Mrs. Jeannete C. Thomas; one son, Lomax B. Thomas, Jr. of Memphis, Tennessee; two daughters, Mrs. Lory Jean Wray of Seattle Washington and Mrs. Pamela Rhyan (Bobby) of Memphis, Tennessee; eight grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, a loving mother, Mrs. Minnie L. Thomas; one aunt, Mrs. Lula A. Black; six sisters, Mrs. Annie C. Smith of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Mrs. Lula B. Childs (Mark) Ortoka, Oklahoma, Winnie Gaines (Robert) of South Bend, Indiana, Mrs. Lucille Cooper, Mrs. Irma Martin and Mrs. Willie Hentz, all of Batesville, Mississippi; two brothers, Mr. Joseph Thomas (Louise), Mr. Stanley Thomas, Jr. (Annie) of Batesville, Mississippi; two sisters-in-law, Ms. Anette Y. Counts of Memphis, Tennessee, Mrs. Michelle Hayslett (Billy) of Union City, Tennessee; one brother-in-law, Mr. Roderick (Rocky) Counts of Chicago, Illinois; a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Someday He'll make it plain to me,
Someday when I, His face shall see;
Someday from tears I shall be free,
For someday I shall understand.
